

Volunteers Needed!

Help select the winners for the 2020 California Association of Healthcare Leaders (CAHL) Student Scholarship Awards!

The CAHL Higher Education Committee is seeking volunteers to serve on the selection panel of the annual 2020 student scholarship program. By volunteering, you will assist with the review and scoring of candidate resumes and submissions to determine the undergraduate and graduate recipients of the respective scholarships.

The submission review and judging process will occur in May with a selection to be made by early June. All volunteers will be asked to participate in an orientation webinar before judging begins to discuss the process, criteria, and responsibilities. The total time commitment required will vary depending on the total number of volunteers and applicants.

Members interested in volunteering on the selection panel are asked to email the Higher Education Committee at cahlscholarship@ache-cahl.org
