

CAHL Annual Case Competition Student FAQ

Eligibility & Team Formation

1. Who is eligible to compete?

Undergraduate and graduate students currently enrolled in eligible healthcare programs within the CAHL geographic footprint are eligible to participate. Recent graduates whose graduate degree was conferred in 2026 are also eligible if at least 50% of their 3–4-person team consists of currently enrolled graduate students.

2. How many students can be on a team?

Each team must consist of 3–4 students. Undergraduate and graduate students compete in separate divisions.

3. Can we replace a team member?

Yes. Any substitute team member must receive prior approval from the CAHL Case Competition Committee Chair(s).

Preparing Your Case

4. When do we receive the case study?

The case study will be emailed to all registered teams on October 5, 2026.

5. Can our faculty advisor help us?

Yes, but only in a limited capacity. Faculty advisors may:

- Help organize the team
- Answer general questions
- Help remove logistical barriers to participation

Faculty advisors may not:

- Develop your strategy
- Recommend solutions
- Edit your presentation
- Help answer case-specific questions after the case is released

The analysis and recommendations must be entirely the students' work.

6. Can we use AI?

Yes, but responsibly. AI may be used as a tool; however:

- Your submission must reflect your own critical thinking and analysis.
- The work must be written in your own words.
- AI use should be appropriately cited.
- Judges may ask questions to verify your understanding of your recommendations.

7. Can we contact the organization featured in the case?

No, this will result in disqualification. Teams may not contact the host organization or affiliated individuals for additional information or guidance.

8. What resources can we use?

Teams may use publicly available resources only. Employees of the featured organization, consultants, partner organizations, and others connected to the case may not be used as resources.

Submission

9. What do we need to submit?

Each team must submit:

- A PowerPoint presentation (maximum 10 MB)
- An Executive Summary (maximum 500 words)

10. Can we submit updated versions after the deadline?

No. Once the submission deadline has passed, no changes or resubmissions are permitted.

11. Can we include our school logo or school name?

No. All submissions should include only your team's name. Do not include:

- Student names
- School names
- School logos
- Any other identifying information

12. Can the Executive Summary contain figures or charts?

No. The Executive Summary should be a stand-alone document and should not contain charts, graphs, or images.

Presentation Day

13. How long is the presentation?

Each team will have 15 minutes to present and 5 minutes for judge questions

14. Does every team member have to speak?

Yes. Every team member is expected to participate meaningfully in both the presentation and the Q&A session.

15. Can we use presenter notes?

No. Students should be prepared to present without notes.

16. Can we exceed the 15-minute presentation limit?

No. Teams must conclude their presentation when time is called. Teams should rehearse in advance to ensure they finish within the allotted time.

During the Competition

17. Can we watch other teams present?

No. Team members may not attend another competing team's presentation until their own team has been eliminated. Note-taking is also prohibited. Violation of this rule will result in team disqualification.

18. If we make the finals, can we edit our presentation?

No. Finalists must present the exact same materials submitted for the preliminary round.

19. Does our preliminary score carry over to the final round?

No. The final round is judged independently from the preliminary round.

Judging

20. What are judges looking for?

Judges will evaluate your presentation based on:

- Quality of analysis

- Responsiveness to the case prompt
- Practicality and feasibility of recommendations
- Organization and flow
- Executive Summary
- Presentation skills
- Ability to answer questions accurately and concisely
